The four points of the scoring scale correspond to varying degrees of performance.

Score Point	Score Point Description
4	 The "4" response reflects a thorough understanding of relevant knowledge and skills. The response thoroughly fulfills the assignment and is completely appropriate for the intended audience. The ideas are effectively organized and logically connected. The ideas are well developed with specific, relevant details. The response exhibits a comprehensive command of syntax and grammar, containing only minor errors that do not interrupt communication. The response demonstrates a strong command and broad range of vocabulary, including idiomatic expressions. There are few, if any, errors in spelling, diacritical marks, and punctuation.
3	 The "3" response reflects a general understanding of relevant knowledge and skills. The response generally fulfills the assignment and is appropriate for the intended audience. The ideas are generally organized and connected. The ideas are generally developed with some specific details. The response exhibits an adequate command of syntax and grammar, although some errors may cause minor interruptions in communication. The response demonstrates a general command and adequate range of vocabulary, including idiomatic expressions. There are minor errors in spelling, diacritical marks, and punctuation, but these do not interfere with communication.
2	 The "2" response reflects a limited understanding of relevant knowledge and skills. The response partially fulfills the assignment and may not be appropriate for the intended audience. The ideas are partially organized; connections between ideas may be lacking. The ideas are partially developed: details may be limited, repetitive, and/or partially irrelevant. The response exhibits limited command of syntax and grammar; errors sometimes interfere with communication. The response demonstrates a limited command and narrow range of vocabulary, including idiomatic expressions. There are errors in spelling, diacritical marks, and punctuation that partially interfere with communication.
1	 The "1"response reflects little understanding of relevant knowledge and skills. The response fulfills little of the assignment and is inappropriate for the intended audience. The ideas are unorganized and disjointed. The ideas are not developed: there are few, if any, relevant supporting details. The response exhibits little or no command of syntax and grammar; significant and frequent errors impede communication. The response demonstrates a weak command of vocabulary, with little to no range. Idiomatic expressions, if used, may be inappropriate. Errors in spelling, diacritical marks, and punctuation are so numerous that they impede communication.
U	The response is unrelated to the assignment, is unreadable, is not written in the target language, or does not contain a sufficient amount of original work to score.
В	There is no response to the assignment.